COTTON CLUB

Merrimack Hall's Exclusive Members-Only Lounge

What is the Cotton Club?

The Cotton Club is Merrimack Hall's private lounge, open to members at the Director, Supporter and Producer levels of our 2012-13 Membership Program. The Cotton Club opens one hour prior to each performance, during intermission, and 30 minutes after each show. Members are invited to enjoy complimentary beer, wine, and a signature cocktail in our spacious dance studio, located just outside the performance hall.

Where did the name originate?

Merrimack Hall Performing Arts Center is a historic building, erected in the early 1900s as part of the Merrimack Manufacturing Company's textile mill village. Merrimack Hall was the social center for mill village life. Today, Merrimack Hall and 296 mill village houses are all that remain of this important piece of Huntsville's history.

How do I join?

The minimum donation level to receive Cotton Club access is $250. Members at the Director Level ($250) receive two passes. Members who join at the Supporter Level ($500) receive four passes, while members who join at the Producer Level ($1,000) receive six passes. Additional one-night passes are available for purchase by Cotton Club members for any additional friends or guests you'd like to entertain prior to a Merrimack Hall production.
